- One representative or catechist will bring the Book of the Elect from their parish to Bishop Luis Rafael.
- All names must be written in the Book ahead of time.
- The catechist or parish delegate carries the book, moving forward when the name of their parish is called. At the same time, when the parish name is called, the catechumens and their godparents will stand and remain standing in their places (pews) until the Rite is completed.
- The catechist or delegate will present the book to the bishop and place it on the table for his signature.
- After the bishop signs the book, the catechist or delegate will return to his or her seat with the book.
- Once all parishes have been called, the Rite will continue as prescribed.
- At the conclusion of the Rite, all are invited to maintain an attitude of reverence.
