WE WELCOME ALL OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS OF FAITH
to Celebrate Black Catholic History Month!

Join us as we honor the rich history, faith, and contributions of Black Catholics and reflect on their enduring witness of holiness, perseverance, and discipleship.

Featuring Guest Presenter:
Deacon Stephen Pickett of the Diocese of Charlotte.

Reverend Mister Stephen Pickett is a deacon in the Diocese of Charlotte, North Carolina. Ordained to the diaconate on June 10, 2006, he currently serves at Saint Francis of Assisi Roman Catholic Church in Lenoir, NC.

He is a youth evangelist, workshop presenter, preacher, retreat leader and presenter for educational professional development programs. He is also a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated and the Knights of St. Peter Claver.

Deacon Pickett is a product of the Diocese of Raleigh Catholic Schools, the Cumberland County School System and St. Ann Catholic Church in Fayetteville, NC. He holds a Master of Arts in Middle Grades Education from Appalachian State University and a Bachelor of Arts in Social Studies from Fayetteville State University. He is also a graduate of Aquinas Institute of Theology's New Frontiers in Preaching Academy, Mastery in Preaching Certificate Program.

He has been married to the former Deboriah Boyce for 35 years. They have one daughter, one son, four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
