

Recognizing and Reporting Child Abuse and Neglect
POST TEST

Name ANSWER Key Date _____

- TRUE FALSE 1. National Data indicates that one out of ten children will be sexually abused by their eighteenth birthday.
- TRUE FALSE 2. Safe Environment Training is not required for seminarians and parish employees.
- TRUE FALSE 3. Children may be reported as neglected if they are left alone or if they are left to supervise other children.
- TRUE FALSE 4. If you suspect abuse or neglect, you should wait until you have proof before you make a call to law enforcement.
- TRUE FALSE 5. Approximately 50 percent of physical abuse victims have head or facial injuries.
- TRUE FALSE 6. Emotional abuse is hard to define and is not reportable in North Carolina.
- TRUE FALSE 7. After Church personnel make a call to report suspected abuse of a minor to law enforcement, as part of their role in ministry, they should inform their supervisor or pastor.
- TRUE FALSE 8. Leaving a child with an inappropriate caregiver is part of the definition of child neglect.
- TRUE FALSE 9. Approximately 95% of reported incidents of child sexual abuse in North Carolina are found to be substantiated
- TRUE FALSE 10. Education personnel are often the adults who notice a child is being mistreated and report child abuse in North Carolina.
- TRUE FALSE 11. The Diocese of Raleigh requires that your background check and safe environment training be renewed every 5 years moving to every 2 years in 2025!
- TRUE FALSE 12. For an act to be defined as of the sexual abuse of a minor in North Carolina, the perpetrator must make physical contact with the minor.
- TRUE FALSE 13. The majority of child abuse reports in North Carolina involve children who five years old or younger.
- TRUE FALSE 14. The Code of Conduct for Church Personnel for the Diocese of Raleigh gives guidelines that apply to only church personnel who are ordained.
- TRUE FALSE 15. Safe Environment Training helps leaders gain the capacity to recognize and report child abuse and neglect.