Divorce Decree Information

Employee Name (Last, First, Middle Initial)

Social Security Number

National guidelines have been set up to decide the "order of benefits" in divorce situations. Please refer to Page 44 of the Medical section of Your Employee Benefits booklet. We must have information from your divorce decree to place in your file. Because this information is personal, you may either send us a copy of your divorce decree or answer the following questions on this letter, and return it to our office.

1. If you are legally divorced, please provide the names of the children listed in the decree:

Child's Name (Last, First, Middle Initial)

Child's Name (Last, First, Middle Initial)

Child's Name (Last, First, Middle Initial)

Child's Name (Last, First, Middle Initial)

2. Does the decree give full custody to one parent? If so, which parent:

Mother Father Name:

Or do parents share joint custody? Shared custody

3. Does the decree state that one parent must provide medical/dental coverage? Yes No

If Yes, which parent?

(That parent's coverage, if any, is primary)

If No, the coverage of the parent with full legal custody is primary. If legal custody is joint, normal guidelines apply; such as, male/female rule or birthday rule.

4. Name of Other Parent (Last, First, Middle Initial)
