

Black History Month: Catholics and Racial Healing

Every Monday in February at 7:00PM | facebook.com/stmchapelhill

FEBRUARY 1 | SISTER LARRETTA RIVERA-WILLIAMS

Pastoral Outreach Coordinator at St. Leo the Great Catholic Church in Winston-Salem, NC

"The Eucharist and Racial Healing"

FEBRUARY 8 | DOLORES & LORIE CLARK

Mother & Daughter: First Black Family in Carrboro, North Carolina

"Seven Generations in Chapel Hill: A Conversation with Dolores Clark"

FEBRUARY 15 | PRINCIPAL GERALD D. SMITH JR.

Principal at St. Thomas More Academy in Washington D.C.

"The Importance of an Anti-Racist Education"

FEBRUARY 22 | PROFESSOR SHANNEN DEE WILLIAMS

Albert LePage Assistant Professor of History at Villanova University

"Why the History of Black Catholic Sisters in the United States Matters"

BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE ST. THOMAS MORE IMAGE AND LIKENESS COMMITTEE