

Come Hear Testimony from Pat Attilis

“Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.” (Joshua 1:9)

Pat was born and raised in Northern Virginia, where her Catholic faith was woven into her life from the very beginning. She attended Catholic schools through high school and grew up as the daughter of a Catholic father and a Baptist mother, the youngest of four children with three older brothers. Her family roots and early formation nurtured a deep love for the Church that has guided her throughout her life. She is the proud mother of three sons and one daughter and the joyful grandmother of ten grandchildren. Professionally, Pat devoted many years to serving others in the medical field, working in Chiropractic, OBGYN, and Psychiatry. For forty-five years, Pat was an active member of Church of the Nativity in Burke, Virginia. During those decades, she served her parish community in many ministries: as a prayer group leader, a Eucharistic minister, and a CCD teacher for twenty-six years. She also served on the Diocese of Arlington’s monthly Healing Mass prayer team and was trained and active for many years in the Unbound ministry. Her love for evangelization led her on several mission trips to Europe, where she ministered to seminarians, novices, and priests—experiences that deepened her trust in the Holy Spirit and her desire to serve. After moving to North Carolina three years ago, Pat quickly became a vibrant part of the Catholic community. She now serves on the leadership and core team for the Hearts of Fire prayer group at St. Mary Magdalene in Apex and is a member of the Board of the Charismatic Renewal for the Diocese of Raleigh. Pat loves serving the Lord, spending time with her family, traveling, praise and worship, and living in the love, peace, and freedom that Jesus has brought into her life.

Magnificat Ministry

Magnificat is an international Catholic women’s ministry dedicated to evangelizing and encouraging women to grow in holiness by opening more fully to the power and gifts of the Holy Spirit. Rooted in the richness of the Catholic faith, Magnificat serves women both within and outside the Catholic Charismatic Renewal who desire a deeper, more personal relationship with Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit. Magnificat fosters this spiritual growth in a supportive community of Catholic women who walk together in faith. Magnificat Ministry operates with ecclesial approval in the Catholic Diocese of Raleigh.
